Being All I Am Created To Be:

Gospels Interpretation

Part 2

THE BIRTH OF CHRIST AWARENESS

The story of the birth of Jesus can be found in the Gospels according to Matthew 1:18-2:23 and Luke 2:1-20. John tells a different, but related story of the "Word", vs 1:1-14. The symbology of these stories reflects those of many of the worlds religions, here we will concentrate on its relation to the Old Testament book of Genesis.

"...Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come (Christ)." (Rom. 5:14). With the birth of Jesus, or Christ level of awareness, we are given a rematch, a chance for redemption of the Adam level of consciousness in the "Garden of Eden" analogy. Joseph (intellect) was "resolved to divorce her quietly" (Mt 1:19), or to follow the appearances of sense consciousness just as Adam and Eve (intellect and feeling natures) followed the leadings of sense (the serpent) and not of Spirit (God) in eating of the fruit. (Gen 3:6) Instead, he and Mary (feeling soul nature) both follow the leading of Spirit (angels) and unite to birth the Christ level of awareness into physical experience (swaddling clothes).

So may we birth the Christ level of awareness into our conscious experience when we follow the leadings of Spirit even when it is in opposition to sense appearances. Here we know with Jesus that "I and the Father are one" (Jn 10:30). We are one with God, one with our good. The eternal awareness of this presence active in our minds, hearts and lives is Christ awareness.

"The Word" is the creative power of God or Spirit, analogous to the "God said" of Genesis. It is God, and has come into the flesh and dwells within us (Jn 1:14 & Lk 17:21). The creative power of the Word is directed by the words we speak, the thoughts we think and the feelings or emotions we hold. These set up a vibration that goes forth to establish the physical stuff of our world. In the Christ level of awareness we are aligned with God, with our good and call forth seemingly miraculous results through the power of the Word.
